

Speakers Bureau 2018

Crisis Pregnancy Center of Tidewater is a Christ-like response to this culture. It is dedicated to affirming life by bringing hope, compassion and truth to women and families involved in unplanned pregnancies. These speakers are wonderful representatives of the ministry and available to you by calling 757.410.9703.

Toby DeBause, President

In 1995, Toby was introduced to pregnancy center ministry. He immediately understood that this was one of the most relevant ministries of our time. He began working with the Crisis Pregnancy Center of Tidewater as a volunteer and in June of 2000, he joined the staff as the executive director. Today, Toby serves as president of the Crisis Pregnancy Center of Tidewater and the head of another non-profit organization which supports pregnancy centers nationwide.

He is passionate about serving Christ and has a strong desire to help women facing a crisis pregnancy and protect those preborn children who are casualties of a culture that no longer considers life to be sacred.

"I'm not sure there is anyone I'd rather address our church on the issue of the Sanctity of Life than Toby DeBause. His knowledge and wisdom translates into a passion to see God's people informed and stirred to action. Our church was encouraged by his heart, challenged by his words and motivated to continue to fight for the unborn."

Eric Hughes, Senior Pastor at Redeemer Church
